

Patient Name: Mia Turner
Date of Visit: November 15, 2023
Medical Record Number: 3456722

Subjective

- 28-year-old female presents with complaints of persistent abdominal pain, bloating and changes in bowel habits.
- She reports alternating episodes of diarrhea and constipation along with occasional blood in the stool.

Observation

- Abdominal examination reveals tenderness in the left lower quadrant.
- Colonoscopy shows skipped lesions and ulcerations throughout the colon.
- Biopsy confirms the diagnosis of Crohn's disease.

Assessment

- Crohn's disease involving the colon.

Plan

- Treatment will include a combination of anti-inflammatory medications and immunosuppressants.
- Mia will be closely monitored for disease activity and potential complications.

Attending Physician: Dr. Young